8:30

Go to work on my scooter and go grab something from the bakery.

9:00

Start my morning with a cup of coffee with my colleagues and start working on my emails.

9:10

Doing my prep calls for candidates and follow up calls with my clients.

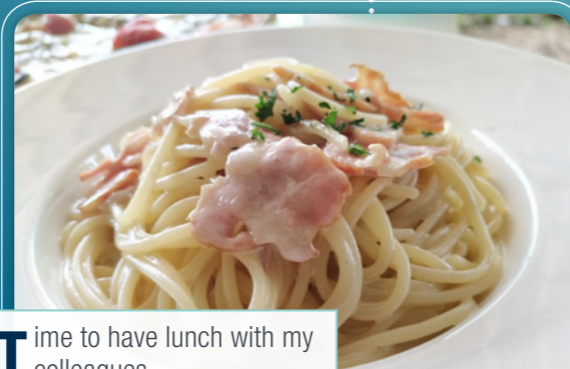

10:30

Interviews with candidates to find out if the position they've applied for suits them. I think it's important to get to know people personally. What motivates them? What is important in life?

12:20

Time to have lunch with my colleagues.

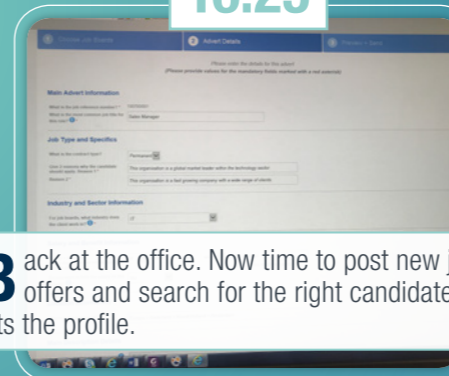

13:00

After lunch, I check my calendar and prep for a new client I am going to visit. Prepare and visiting a new client, they are looking for a senior marketing manager. I will follow up with the best shortlist of candidates that I have met.

16:25

Back at the office. Now time to post new job offers and search for the right candidate that fits the profile.

20:00

After work, I'm having dinner with my girlfriend and unwind by watching a good Netflix series on the couch.
